

ORCA MONTH 2016

EVENTS CALENDAR

The Orca Salmon Alliance invites you to celebrate the 10th Annual Orca Month!

A Captive Orca and Her Natural History

Wednesday, June 1, 7 pm | Anacortes Public Library
Call 360.293.1910 ext 21 for details. | Free

Dana Lyons Concert, with Audri Cooke

Saturday, June 4, 5:30 pm | Langley Whale Center
Join Dana Lyons for a concert to celebrate Orca Month who will be joined by Langley Whale Center Youth Team member Audri Cook, who will open with her original song "When the Whales Come Home". | $10 suggested donation

Baby Orca Birthday Bash

Sunday, June 5, 2 – 5 pm | Alki Beach Bathhouse, West Seattle

A free family-fun event with orca birthday cakes, live music by Dana Lyons, face painting, orca fort, orca fin making, orca bingyo by Whale Trail, Mike the orca, inflatable salmon & more.

Orcas of the Northwest Webinar

Thursday, June 9, 5:30 pm | free webinar
Learn from experts about the different kinds of orcas that live in the waters of the Northwest, why they're threatened, and what we can do to help.

Toxic Beauty: From Puget Sound to Orcas

Thursday, June 16, 6:30 – 9 pm | Woodland Park Zoo, Seattle
Showcasing toxic cleanup efforts that help orcas and salmon survive. Appetizers and drinks included. | $12 Register here.

Orcas In Our Midst

Saturday, June 18, 10 am – 4:30 pm | Whidbey Children's Theater, Langley

Workshop to celebrate and learn about Southern Resident Orcas | $25 students & seniors; $35 general admission Register here.

Orca Sing

Saturday, June 25, 6 pm | Lime Kilm State Park, San Juan Island

Bring a picnic and a blanket for this free outdoor concert featuring Fred West & City Cantabile Choir.

Oil, Orcas, and Oystercatchers: Preparing for the Inevitable

Sunday, June 26, 12 - 2:30 pm | Padilla Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve, Mount Vernon

Learn about the threats our region's iconic Southern Resident orca and marine bird populations face due to increased oil tanker traffic in the Salish Sea with a training opportunity for local oil spill response and observation efforts. | Free to the public.

Orca and Salmon: An Evening of Storytelling

Wednesday, June 29, 6:30 – 9 pm | Town Hall, Seattle
An evening of appetizers, drinks, and stories featuring Lower Elwha Klallam storyteller Roger Fernandes and authors David Neiwert and Brenda Peterson. | $10 - $15

Orca Month was created by Orca Network, a member of the Orca Salmon Alliance, a decade ago to show appreciation for our beloved orca neighbors, and to encourage a culture of stewardship to protect these majestic animals and their fragile habitat.

To learn more, visit orcamonth.com or orcasalmonalliance.org.

These events are sponsored by Orca Salmon Alliance members:

